

SUGGESTION OF SMALL IS APPROVED

LIKELY TO RESULT IN DEMANDS THAT SPEECH BE KEPT FROM RECORDS

Receives a Message from Governor Blaine of Wisconsin Saying That He Would be Glad to Join in Such a Conference—Illinois Executive Sends Blaine Details of Bids

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 26.—Governor Small's suggestion of a conference of governors of mid-western states to discuss road building and prices of road material has met with the approval of Governor John J. Blaine of Wisconsin, to whom the proposition was submitted a few days ago. In a message received by Governor Small today Governor Blaine said that he would be glad to join in the conference.

The conference was suggested by Governor Small as the beginning of an effort to "break the backbone of the cement trust" which he declared is charging exorbitant prices for cement.

The suggestion was made following Governor Small's arraignment of A. R. Hirst, Wisconsin highway engineer, for statements said to have been made before the Portland Cement Association in Chicago recently.

Sends Blaine Details

In reply to Governor Blaine's request for details on road construction bids and contracts in Illinois, Governor Small forwarded to the Wisconsin governor amounts of bids opened by Illinois highway officials yesterday when a bid of $23,856 per mile for an eighteen foot road and another bid of $28,207 for a sixteen foot road were received. The bids included the cost of cement.

In commenting upon the bids Governor Small said:

"No reductions on price of cement but substantial reductions on all other materials and construction work."

The possibility of several of the central states joining in the manufacture of cement for their roads was suggested by one of Governor Small's confidants in discussing the proposed conference.

"It is the duty of congress to make an investigation," he said, "so that if the charges are true future generations will know about the financial combinations whose intrigues drew this country into war. If they are true, it is strange that Sir Gilbert Parker now asserts there was a big propaganda movement thru newspapers and teachers to excite the American people and induce them into the war on behalf of Great Britain."

The proposal that women be permitted to fill the office of deacon brought a protest from Rev. Abraham Lathem of Chester, Pa. He quoted from the Book of Acts in which he said the twelve apostles in calling for the appointment of deacons gave this injunction to the disciples:

Quotes Scripture.

"Look yet out therefore, Brethren from among seven men of good report, full of the spirit and of wisdom whom you may appoint over this business."

A generous round of applause greeted this quotation but immediately there was counter quotations from a commissioner who found his inspiration in Romans. He quoted:

"I command unto you, Phoebe, our sister, who is a deaconess of the church that is at Genchreæ, that ye receive her in the Lord, worthy of the saints and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you. For she herself also hath been the helper of many and of mine own self."

Cheers greeted the quotation and a tribute by Rev. David Hughes of Baltimore to the deacons in his church, brought ringing shout of approbation.

According to testimony before the Dailey committee graft money was paid to union leaders varying in sum from $100 to $14,000 and totalling about $32,000 by the owner of a moving picture theater and members of the Scrap Iron Dealers' association.

SUGGEST ARBITER FOR AMERICAN CLAIMS

Washington, May 26.—State department officials are understood to have expressed approval of the suggestion of Panama that Thomas A. Lebreton, the Argentine ambassador, be invited to act as arbiter in adjusting claims filed against the Panama government by American citizens who were injured in riots in Panama City and Colon in 1915.

FRENCH CHAMBER IN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Paris, May 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The chamber of deputies this evening gave a vote of confidence to Premier Briand's government. The vote was 319 to 162.

The vote was taken on the question of the government's stand with regard to Silesia and generally concerning its attitude toward Germany.

HARDING'S MESSAGE TO AMERICAN LEGION

NEW YORK, May 26.—President Harding in a Memorial Day message to the American Legion made public tonight expressed the hope that the future years would bring less need for further national sacrifices. The message said in part:

"Americans have never been much given to the establishment of holidays and fete days. Perhaps our national life has been so short and within so practical a period of the world's history that we have been little moved by the sentiments that such occasions inspire. Yet, I think no nation has ever established a national day of consecration that represented a more lofty and ennobling sentiment than does our national Memorial Day. To its observance we have brought the full measure of sincere reverence and gratitude that a great people is ever to entertain for those who have made the great sacrifice in itself."

"Memorial Day marks our recognition of those who, from our national beginnings have deserved the most that the nation could give of gratitude and appreciation. It reminds us that in every generation, from Lexington to the Argonne, our valiant sons have well deserved the highest tribute that a nation fortified, defended, preserved, could give them. * * * *

"On this Memorial Day we stand, I trust, very close to peace achieved, to safety insured. May it be our common aim and purpose that our nation's aim and policy shall be directed to make certain there shall be least need for further sacrifices, greatest guarantees of the stability, the permanence and the inspiring character of those institutions of liberty to which our nation has been dedicated."

The attack was made after Mr. Michaelson had spoken in support of his resolution for investigation of charges that the United States had been led into the war by British propaganda and financial interests at a time when President Wilson was pleading for neutrality.

Mr. Connally appealed to the speaker for some way by which its publication could be prevented, declaring it had been made by "one who is not worthy to sit in this chamber."

In a parliamentary wrangle concerning methods for exclusion of the speech the session ended abruptly with a motion to adjourn by Representative Haugen, Republican, Iowa. There were indications that the fight would be resumed tomorrow.

Quoting from his resolution.

Quoting from his resolution Mr. Michaelson declared that charges by former Representative Callaway of Texas, to the effect that widespread newspaper propaganda had been disseminated to involve the United States in hostilities, had, in his opinion, been substantiated by Gabriel Hanotiaux, formerly French minister for foreign affairs and that congress should order a sweeping investigation.

"It is the duty of congress to make an investigation," he said, "so that if the charges are true future generations will know about the financial combinations whose intrigues drew this country into war. If they are true, it is strange that Sir Gilbert Parker now asserts there was a big propaganda movement thru newspapers and teachers to excite the American people and induce them into the war on behalf of Great Britain."

The proposal that women be permitted to fill the office of deacon brought a protest from Rev. Abraham Lathem of Chester, Pa. He quoted from the Book of Acts in which he said the twelve apostles in calling for the appointment of deacons gave this injunction to the disciples:

"Look yet out therefore, Brethren from among seven men of good report, full of the spirit and of wisdom whom you may appoint over this business."

GRACE M. LUSK GOES TO HER HOME

Under Sentence for Murder Is Allowed to Leave Prison Under Guard to Visit Dying Father.

Madison, Wis., May 26.—Grace M. Lusk, former school teacher of Waukesha, serving a 19 year sentence for the murder in 1917 of Mrs. David Roberts, has been released from prison under guard to visit her dying father at Mosinee, where she has been known today. Governor Blaine granted the request Tuesday and stipulated that release would be conditioned on the fact that Miss Lusk be accompanied by guard and observe the same routine as that she was in prison.

The trial which followed the murder of Mrs. Roberts on June 21, 1917, as a result of a sensational love tangle involving former State Veterinarian, Dr. David Roberts, Miss Lusk has been in the penitentiary since June 19, 1918.

UNIONIST MAKE BETTER SHOWING THAN IS EXPECTED

RESULTS OF ELECTIONS IN IRELAND FURNISH SOME SURPRISES

(By The Associated Press)

BELFAST, May 26.—The Unionists have done better in the elections than they anticipated, the Sinn Feiners worse than their prophets predicted and the nationalists no more than they looked for.

The unionists are therefore, the only party in Ulster not disappointed.

All, however, are celebrating—the Unionists because they have won; the nationalists and Sinn Feiners because they have made their protest against the partition of Ireland and believe the protest will have its effect on the peoples of the world.

The Unionists expected to win 34 of the 52 seats, including those for the university to be decided Saturday. They will probably get nearer forty seats.

Counting Not Completed.

Counting of the ballots will probably not be completed until the end of the week, but the returns show the Unionists made their greatest gains in Belfast where it is expected they will have 15 to 16 seats. Joseph Devlin, Nationalists leader is the only opposition man to have a seat for Belfast in the new parliament, if he decides to sit there and even he was beaten in his own stronghold for first place on the poll by his Unionist opponent, T. H. Burn. His colleague, Alderman Byrne, was at the bottom of the list with only 31 votes. This was due to the Nationalists giving all their first votes to Devlin.

The Sinn Feiners did better than Byrne, but on the first ballot they were well behind the Unionists, and, as apparently neither the Nationalists nor the Sinn Feiners kept their pact to give their second votes for each other's candidates there was little hope for them in the second ballot. The Socialists lost their deposits which they forfeit if they do not receive a certain number of votes.

In Antrim things are going about as expected, the Unionists being certain of six of the seven seats, the other going to Devlin.

Derry came out as the Unionists predicted. They elected their three candidates, all they had nominated, thus leaving the other two seats to Prof. John McNeil, Sinn Fein and his Nationalist running mate.

Craig and DeValeira Opponents

In County Down, where Sir James Craig the Ulster premier designate and Eamonn de Valera, Republican leader were opponents and where both will be elected, the seats will be divided equally between the two sides, two and two.

The percentage of votes polled was high in West Belfast. It reached 94 and this figure was equalled in many constituencies, while nowhere was the percentage below 87. It is noted that in many instances the candidate whose name was first on the list which was arranged alphabetically received the largest number of votes.

The ballots were counted in a sealed room, with police armed with rifles at the doors to prevent any attempt to destroy the ballot box.

The Nationalists probably will win eight seats and the Sinn Feiners four.

JUDGE AKERS NAMES RECEIVER FOR COMPANY

United Cereals Mill Is Placed in Hands of the Receiver After Foreclosure Suit Is Filed.

(By The Associated Press)

Quincy, Ill., May 26.—A receiver was appointed by Judge Akers in the circuit court here today for the United Cereals Mill after a suit in foreclosure had been filed by the Continental & Commercial Trust & Savings Bank and Frank H. Jones, as trustee of the company, to handle the stock yards interests of Armour & Co. and Swift Co., until purchasers for these can be found.

The purpose of the hearing was to give an opportunity to those having grievances to air these for submission at a later date to the supreme court. No sale of the stock yards is expected in the near future, however, Mr. Sutherland asserted. The present financial conditions make an early sale improbable, he said.

INDICTED FOR MAIL ROBBERY

Chicago, May 26.—Peter Gugenberg, accused of participation in the Dearborn Street Station mail robbery, April 6, was indicted by the federal grand jury before Judge Landis today. He was charged with stealing from the mails and with assaulting Dennis J. Colbert, a railway clerk.

DAVID H. BLAIR IS COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE

Winston-Salem Man is Finally Confirmed for That Position by the Senate—Bitter Fight Was Made Against His Appointment by Senator Johnson of California, and Others

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The nomination of David H. Blair of Winston-Salem, N. C., to be internal revenue commissioner, was confirmed today by the senate over the opposition of Senator Johnson, Republican, California, and others.

The vote was 59 to 15. Blair's opponents were seven Republicans and eight Democrats including, it was said, Borah, Johnson, Jones of Washington, Kenyon, Ladd, LaFollette, Norbeck, Norris, Republicans, and Ashurst, Harris, Harrison, Reed, Shepard, Walcott and Watson of Georgia, Democrats.

Senator Johnson made his final fight in an executive session but was voted down after sharp debate.

Mr. Blair's confirmation fills a vacancy in the office of internal revenue commissioner which has existed for a fortnight with Secretary Mellon acting in the interim. Many important affairs including prohibition rulings await the new commissioner.

Senator Johnson accused Mr. Blair of having violated the North Carolina primary law as a delegate at the Chicago Republican convention by failing to support the senator who was high man in the state preference primary. Senator Johnson also contend Mr. Blair was disqualified because income tax appeals of his relatives were ending for action before the internal revenue bureau. The senate finance committee recommended confirmation.

It is generally understood that Ex-President Taft will be appointed as chief justice of the supreme court of the U. S. to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice White. By nature, education and experience Mr. Taft is fitted for this office and his appointment will certainly be widely commended.

Postmaster General Hays has ruled that a number of radical papers denied the use of the mails by Mr. Burleson shall now be accorded second class mail privileges. Mr. Hays has just as strict ideas as his predecessor about loyalty and patriotism, but state aid roads here require little or no expense for grading.

The experience of other cities where a like plan has been tried has been that after the active drive has ceased many new members are added, and no doubt that rule will be followed here.

There are violations of the law, he expects the department of justice to handle the offenders in the proper way.

Few court trials in the history of Jacksonville have attracted as many visitors to the court house as the Duncan murder hearing now in progress. Possibly the great throng can be accounted for in the almost universal quest for excitement, or possibly by the present period of unemployment.

At any rate, a spectator in the court room these days who thinks at all cannot but wonder that so many people are willing to stand the discomfort of a steaming court room in order to hear the details of a somewhat sordid but otherwise commonplace story told.

Speaking for present days, nothing will be better for this community than the letting of a hard road contract. Let us hope that the county commissioners, aided by citizens, can find a way whereby road construction can be undertaken here at a figure within Gov. Small's $30,000 limit.

The experience of other cities where a like plan has been tried has been that after the active drive has ceased many new members are added, and no doubt that rule will be followed here.

MISS MOXON IS BRIDE OF MR. FANNING

Well Known Young Woman Weds Illinois College Athletic Star.

In a very pretty home ceremony at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Maude Moxon became the bride of Mr. Ira Fanning. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Moxon, 854 West College avenue, with Rev. T. H. Tull officiating. Before the ceremony Mrs. Bea Coddington sang "Oh Promise Me" and the wedding march was played by Miss Cornelia LaRue.

Only relatives and near friends were the wedding guests. Mrs. Fanning wore a dress of blue satin and her bouquet was of pink roses. The parlor where the ceremony was performed and the other rooms of the home had been very prettily decorated with spring flowers. After the ceremony all those in the company were driven to the Peacock Inn, where a handsome wedding supper was served.

Mrs. Fanning, who is a graduate of the high school, has been popular with the younger people of the city and has been identified with a number of community interests.

Mr. Fanning, who is the son of J. W. Fanning of Murrayville, is a member of a family also well known throughout Morgan county. He saw a long period of service in the world war and as a student of Illinois college has been especially prominent in athletic affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fanning left last night for Hallock, Minn., where

Mr. Fanning is to become principal of the public schools. During the summer months he will be a member of the baseball team.

ILLINOIS DEFEATS CARTHAGE 10 TO 9

Wild and Woolly Game Won By Locals—Both Teams Hit Ball Hard.

Illinois college defeated Carthage college on Illinois field Thursday afternoon by a score of 10 to 9.

Illinois was somewhat handicapped by the absence of Fanning but Davis, pitching his first game, did good work and his teammates finally pulled the game thru for him.

It probably was the last home game for Illinois unless the postponed game with Shurtleff is played here. However, the team has a number of games away from home before school closes.

M. B. ROSS DIED AT HOSPITAL HERE

Prominent White Hall Citizen Passed Away in Jacksonville—Funeral Saturday.

The death of M. B. Ross, prominent citizen of White Hall, occurred at Passavant hospital at 3:35 o'clock Thursday morning. The following facts about Mr. Ross' life were written by the Journal's correspondent at White Hall:

"The public spirited activities of Mr. Ross have given him a lasting place in the hearts of his fellow citizens. He was a member of the well known Ross family of this community, and was born April 17, 1844, in the log home of his father, the late Simon Ross, who later established one of the finest farm homes of the earlier period of the development of this section, and the name of Ross has been identified with many of the movements of greater import in this development. Our subject attended the district school, then normal school, and for a few years was engaged in teaching rural schools in this locality.

"In 1874 he engaged in the mercantile business at Lincoln, Illinois, where he remained until 1887, where in 1884 he and Miss Christine E. Hunter were married. In 1887 they came to White Hall, where Mr. Ross was engaged in mercantile pursuits for few years. During 1911-1916, he served as postmaster and since relocating at White Hall became financially interested in various enterprises.

"At the time of his death, Mr. Ross was vice president of the First National Bank, a stockholder in the People's State Bank, director in the White Hall Sewer Pipe and Stoneware Co. and the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. He had been in failing health for the past four years, and with his demise removes one of the master literary minds and public-spirited men of the community."

The widow and two daughters survive, the latter being Miss Lillian at home and Mrs. E. S. Ransby of Winnipeg, Manitoba. The remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of Williamson and Son and will be later sent to White Hall. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the family home on North Main street, and burial will be made in White Hall cemetery.

MAY WHEAT APPEARS ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

Chicago, May 26.—May wheat appeared on the verge of a collapse today, the price declining 12 cents for the day under pressure to sell. Reports of wheat shipments from many places served to relieve the anxiety of the shorts remaining out while bulls readily expressed the prices obtainable. The close was at $1.68 in comparison with the previous close of $1.79 3/4 and yesterday's high of $1.85 after several days of spectacular rise. During the greater part of the session there was considerable support evident in July wheat. Toward the end the pressure increased and prices receded materially, the close being toward $1.27 3/4.

Chicago, May 26.—When Senorita Francasa Sapiro who came from Mexico spurned the professions of love made by Peter Lopez, her countryman, last night, Peter's heart was chilled and he sought a cold bath. He had not far to be employed as a waiter by a hotel, and today he entered the hostelry's huge ice chest and stretched himself on a giant cake of ice, flanked on either side by two other cakes.

The butcher boy found the disappointed lover this evening, unconscious and blue from the cold. Employed rubbed him with ice shavings for two hours before he revived. As he regained consciousness, Lopez pulled a revolver pointed the muzzle at his brain and pulled the trigger four times but the cartridges failed to explode.

He was successful in his fifth attempt but the trembling hand numb with cold pointed the revolver upward and the bullet went thru Peter's hair and into the ceiling. Tomorrow, police say, he will be sent to the psychiatric hospital for observation.

Duncan Trial Nears The Closing Chapter

Evidence Concluded and Argument Begun
Thursday Afternoon—John M. Butler for State Assailed Self-Defense Plea—Defense Sought to Show Mrs. Duncan Shot When Perry Attacked Her With a Knife

The trial of Mrs. Laura Duncan for the killing of Harry Perry on last Christmas eve is drawing to a close. The defense rested its case yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock and then the prosecution introduced witnesses in rebuttal. The opening statement for the state was made by John M. Butler and Elmer E. Hairgrove presented the case on behalf of the defendant.

Mr. Hairgrove finished his argument about 4:45 and court was then adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning. At that hour William N. Hairgrove will make a plea for the defendant and later State's Attorney Robinson will close for the state.

The rebuttal witnesses of the state were introduced mainly to show that Perry had not been drinking on the night of the murder, as charged by Mrs. Duncan, a shoe shiner; Glenn

Considerable importance also attaches to the testimony of Dr. Bradley, who examined the body of Perry after he had been shot. There were wounds in the neck and the purpose of the prosecution was to show that if these wounds had been inflicted at close range in accordance with the testimony of Mrs. Duncan that there would have been powder marks upon the neck. Dr. Bradley testified that he had carefully examined the slain man and had remarked upon the fact that there were no powder marks.

Thought Perry Sober.

The witnesses who testified that Perry gave no signs of drinking liquor were Richard Matthews, who met him about 6 o'clock at Long's Pharmacy, the night of the murder; Pearl Brown, a shoe shiner; Glenn

Cannon, proprietor of the Cannon restaurant on East State street and Harry McEvans, a barber employed in his shop of George Hamilton which adjoins the Cannon restaurant. All of these persons testified to conversations with Perry during the hours from 5 to 7 o'clock p.m. on the day of the killing, and none of them noticed liquor upon his breath and furthered said that he gave no indication of intoxication.

Miss Anna Burchett, who was employed in the office of the Cannon Produce Co. last October when Mrs. Duncan made a visit to the plant, testified that she had not been in conversation with the man on that day nor on any other day. On the date of Mrs. Duncan's visit she had been employed in the office about two weeks and Perry had been working for the company less than one week.

Mrs. Duncan was the first witness of the day and her examination was taken up by William N. Hairgrove at the point reached when court adjourned on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Duncan testified that Perry came to her home on Wednesday afternoon preceding his death on Friday and returning her revolver her revolver said to her: "If I get it again I will kill you." He remained there two or three hours and then went away, returning in the evening. She said that he then stayed all night, that they sat up and quarreled thru all the night, that Perry had been drinking and had a bottle of cider with him in which he had mixed lemonade.

The Alleged Attack.

Then turning her attention to the night of the tragedy, Mrs. Duncan said that Perry entered her home about 7 o'clock by the kitchen door without knocking. She said that Perry had a knife in his hand and told her he was looking for trouble, that he seized her by the arm but when he saw the daughter Veda he stopped quarreling. When the child had gone to bed in the room adjoining the quarreling was resumed and Perry asked her about the telephone which had been installed that day. He wanted to know who had put it in and Mrs. Duncan replied that her former husband, who is an employee of the telephone company, had installed it.

The witness said that Perry remarked: "I suppose that you had the telephone put in so that you could have me arrested when I came down here," and the witness continued: "I told him that was the purpose. Then he started toward the telephone and as he did so struck me and knocked me over the sewing machine. He struck me again and then asked me where I kept the gun, and if I had moved it from the place it formerly occupied. He seized me and dragged me about the house while he was looking for the gun. Then he pushed me thru the door into Veda's room. The gun was in the drawer of the sewing table and I reached in and took the revolver and shot him in the arm.

"By this time we had reached the dining room and after he had knocked me down in the corner I shot at him again, the bullet striking him in the back. He dragged me into the kitchen and then as he was pushing me backward over the kitchen cabinet I shot him twice in the neck. Perry had hold of me until the last shot and then staggered toward the kitchen door, where he fell. I dragged him from the kitchen door, which was standing open, and placed a rug under his head. The door was open because he had tried to pull me out thru it outdoors.

"After placing the rug under his head I washed the blood from his face and hands and off the floor. Then I telephoned to Sheriff Weatherford. After that I washed my own hands and changed my torn and bloody waist."

Sharp Cross Examination.
In answer to the question as to why he shot Perry the witness said that it was because he was about to stab her with an open knife. Mrs. Duncan was given a severe cross examination at the hands of Mr. Butler and there were various contradictions in her testimony. This examination brought out the fact of frequent quarrels between Perry and the witness in the days preceding the shooting. It was made clear that Perry was angry with her because of alleged attentions from another man or men, and that she did not take kindly his attentions to other women.

The last witness placed on the stand by the prosecution was Coroner Rose, who testified to the facts about the bullet holes in Perry's hat and Master in Chancery English, whose testimony showed various discrepancies between the testimony given at the coroner's inquest and that furnished in this trial.

Conflicting Details.

Mr. Butler made the opening argument for the state and with unswerving logic pointed out the discrepancies in the story of the murder as told by Mrs. Duncan in support of her contention that she shot Perry as an act of self-defense at a moment when she believed he was about to attack her with an open knife.

The attorney said that Perry weighed more than 200 pounds, was 6 feet 2 inches tall and that the defendant is of slight build and weighs only about 120 pounds.

It was inconceivable, he said, that the man could not have overpowered the woman had he sought to do so.

The strong man could have crushed her frail body like a branch of a tree had he chosen to do so.

The defendant says in her testimony that Perry had his arms about her in endeavor to hold her, that she was able to free herself sufficiently to reach into the drawer of a table, seize a revolver and shoot him.

"Mrs. Duncan tells you of this struggle with a strong man with an open knife in his hand and yet the testimony of witnesses proves that she had no mark upon her body. There was no cut from the knife which she alleges was in his hand in this long struggle. And then there was that wound in the back. Where was Mrs. Duncan when she shot this man in the back? Could she have shot him in the back as he grappled with her, according to her story? She says that the man tried to drag her thru the kitchen door and out on the porch.

"Yes, there must be some excuse for her having reached the door, some bit of testimony to make the parts of the story seem to hang together. And how, pray tell me, were the wounds inflicted in the neck if her arm was about his neck as she says. I would have been necessary under those circumstances to hold the revolver close to the man and whether smokeless or semi-smokeless powder or black powder was used, there would have been some powder marks upon the skin. The physicians who examined the body testify that there were no such marks.

Where are the Wounds?

"No, I do not believe that this man at any time during this struggle laid hold on this woman. If he had had the knife in his hand during all that struggle surely there would have been some scratch or some cut, for you know that he was a man of great strength.

"Then there was that fifth shot, the bullet hole in the hat and the evidence indicates that this man was attempting to leave when the final shot was fired. He sank down there at the back door of the little home and died, bullet wounds in his back, bullet wounds in his neck, and yet this woman pleads that she shot in self-defense.

"A woman in a case of this kind is entitled to all the consideration that the law allows and to no more. She is responsible for her acts and no appeal to sentiment should weigh in the consideration of the facts."

E. E. Hairgrove in the first argument for the defense said that he never remembered of a time before when it was thought necessary for the state's attorney to have an associate attorney in his effort to make someone answer for an alleged crime. Then he attacked the testimony of Mrs. Perry, who had said that she saw her son and Mrs. Duncan in conversation in the field about a quarter of a mile from the house and that she was able to see that Mrs. Duncan had one hand in her pocket and that she laid the other on Perry's shoulder or struck him.

The attorney called attention to the fact that members of the family admitted that they had told Mrs. Duncan that Perry had not returned home and brought his clothes when the facts were opposite, and suggested that if they did not tell the truth at that time that the testimony on the stand should be discredited.

Perry an Unbidden Guest

Mr. Hairgrove said that the testimony of some witnesses was presented for the purposes of muddy the water, in making the story appear more confusing. He said that the fact that there were some discrepancies in Mrs. Duncan's testimony went to prove the general truth of her statement, that stories which agreed in every minute detail gave proof of having been thought out and fixed up in advance. The attorney said that indirectly it had been the effort of the prosecution to show that Mrs. Duncan was a wanton woman and yet there had been no proof offered that her relations with Perry were improper. He said that Perry on the fateful night came an unbidden guest to the Duncan home, that there was ample proof that he had been told to keep away. Then he said that Perry's conduct was worthy of a real cave man, that it was his joy to prove that this slight woman must obey him, that he could do with her as he pleased.

Turning his attention to the right of the tragedy, the attorney said:

"Ever since the time the Saylor was born on Christmas eve and the men from the east brought gifts to him, all civilized Christian nations have recognized Christmas eve as the time when good gifts should be given. In Jacksonville last Christmas eve the bells were ringing and happy children were going along the streets on their way to Christmas entertainment. In her little home sat the defendant and her 16-year-old daughter preparing to go to the home of her parents for Christmas. Thru the back door came Perry without so much as knocking. There is no knowing what was in his mind. You have heard the testimony of the coroner that a knife was found in the pocket of the dead man, and the defendant has testified that he came at her with an open knife.

"It is the theory of the defense that the shot which killed Perry was fired while he had hold of the defendant and it is clear that he was not in that home for any good purpose. If the defendant hated the man whose life she took, that fact did not give him the right to come into the sacred precincts of her home and assault her. If she loved him, that did not give him the right to go there and do the things that he did.

Luncheon for Miss Green

The principal and teachers of the Franklin school gave a two course luncheon at the school yesterday noon complimentary to Miss Mildred Green who is severing her connection with the Lord's prayer.

Thursday Social Club Met with Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. A. E. Harris and Mrs. William Farrington were hostesses yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harris, 603 South Church street to the Thursday Social Club.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent with conversation and music. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Grace Church Young People Have Picnic

The young people of Grace M. E. church enjoyed a picnic at Gravel Springs Thursday evening. They met at the church at 6 o'clock and made the trip by automobile. There a picnic supper was served and a time spent socially. The picnic took the place of the regular meeting of the society.

Guild Meeting in Honor of Miss McKnight.

The Young Woman's Guild of the Congregational church held an all day meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hackett Wilder on Prospect street. Miss Florence McKnight, who is to Glenn Coley, of Detroit, Michigan, in the near future, was the guest of honor.

A very delicious luncheon was served at noon and in the afternoon the young ladies hemmed towels for the bride-to-be. Miss McKnight also received some very attractive gifts from her friends in the guild.

Grace Church Young People Have Outing.

The young people of Grace M. E. church had a picnic at Gravel Springs last evening. There were about forty young people, all over fifteen and unmarried, who attended the picnic. They drove out to the springs in cars about six o'clock and ate their supper in the woods. Harlan Williamson is chairman of the Recreational Committee which had charge of the arrangements for the outing.

The Strauss number brought the first part of the program to a successful close.

After a short intermission the last number of the program was given. This was the Symphony in F Minor by Tschaikowsky.

The enthusiasm of the audience was so great and the applause so insistent that a Wagner excerpt was added after the regular program.

The orchestra plays most marvelously. It is evident that each player is an artist who can serve in a part of a great whole. Praise for such an organization is superfluous. The greatest commentary on the work of the evening was the wrapt attention of every member of the large audience and the power of the orchestra under a master of directors to carry the whole audience with them at every new phrase.

Entertained Friends At Six o'Clock Dinner.

Martin Graff entertained a company of boy friends at his home, 349 West College street, at 6 o'clock dinner Thursday evening in honor of Russell Hall who leaves with his parents soon for California to reside. The guests were nearly all members of the same Sunday school class and Boy Scout Troop of Central Christian church and included besides the host: Ernest Olds, Russell Cummings, Russell Hall, LeRoy Barnhart, Earl Hoover and Edward Moy.

MISS MARTINOLE'S A GUEST HERE

Mrs. W. A. Fay has returned from St. Louis where she met Miss Rose Martinole of Toulon, France, who was last year a student at Illinois Woman's college. During the present year Miss Martinole has been an instructor in a girls school at Dallas, Texas. She will spend several days as a guest of Mrs. Fay here before continuing her journey to New York. She is to sail June 11 for her home in France.

There was a large attendance of members and a number of visitors.

The meeting opened with a song by the society. In the absence of Mrs. Walbourne, the devotions were in charge of Mrs. Drury who read the 19th Psalm. This was followed by the society repeating the Lord's prayer.

Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Drury then read interesting articles on Foreign and Home Missionary work. A rush was given in honor of Mrs. Bolan Smith who received many useful gifts.

A social hour followed the program during which the hostesses served refreshments. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. George Holley and daughter, June 30.

Miss Leona Mitchell to Modesto Man.

Duncan at their home on East State street, the engagement of Miss Leona Evelyn Mitchell and Harvey James Sanks of Modesto was announced. Miss Mitchell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mitchell of 739 South Clay avenue, and her charm of manner has won her many friends in Jacksonville where she has lived for many years. Mr. Sanks is a prominent farmer of Modesto and has the respect of all who know him.

The secret was announced by dainty place cards bearing titles which looked forward to the wedding. The delicious four-course dinner was served on a set of dishes decorated with scenes from the Puritan romance of Miles Standish. The wedding of these young people will take place early in June.

High School Seniors Have Picnic.

Early yesterday morning the high school seniors drove out to Gravel Springs woods for an all day outing. They went out in cars and took plenty of good eats along. They had a sumptuous dinner at noon, building a fire and cooking some of it in the open. The rest of the day was spent in playing games and exploring the woods ad late in the afternoon they came back to town. There are seventy one members in the class and nearly all of them went on this happy outing, the last high school picnic that this class will attend.

Miss Corzine and Mr. Baird, the class officers, went with the young people. The girls made sandwiches and salad and the boys brought mint ice cream. The committee in charge of the picnic included Miss Corzine, Misses Helen Baker, Garneta Phelps, Gladys Ruyle, Edward Alexander and Nellis Sanders.

ILLINOIS STAR BALL PLAYER UNDER FIRE

Claims Made That Julie Mee Is Under Contract with the Detroit Americans—It Is Understood Michigan Will File Protests Against Him.

Chicago, May 26.—Julie Mee, shortstop for the University of Illinois, present leaders in the Western conference baseball standing, is under contract to report to the Detroit American league team at the close of the present school year, it was learned today and protests against his appearance in the lineup against the University of Michigan next Saturday are to be filed, it is understood, Michigan is Illinois' closest contender, having lost one game, while Illinois is as yet unbeaten.

Under the name of Daly, it is said that Mee wore a Tiger uniform last fall, but took part in no championship games. At that time Daly's address was given as Glasgow, Mont., and his identity was kept concealed.

Detroit dispatches today said that President Navin admitted Mee was under contract and that Daly and Mee are the same person. The bar of professionalism raised against "Slicker" Parks, Michigan's star pitcher last year, it is believed, will cause representatives of that university to demand the same action against Mee. Parks admitted having played during college vacation in the Pacific coast league. His pitching last year was the sensation of the Big Ten and aided materially in winning the conference title for Michigan.

SURPRISE TO MICHIGAN

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 26.—University of Michigan athletic officials today declared that charges of professionalism made against Julie Mee, star shortstop of Illinois team, came as a surprise to them. No action has been taken by the Michigan officials regarding a formal protest.

ILLINOIS NOT INFORMED

Champaign, Ill., May 26.—University of Illinois athletic officials have no information concerning probable protests against Julie Mee, University of Illinois shortstop, on a charge of professionalism. Mee could not be located at the university.

The board of athletic control was informed that Mee sat on the bench with the Detroit American team last fall. Coach Lundgren said that this would not disqualify him. The board of control has a letter from the Detroit club stating that Mee was "on the bench merely as a spectator."

LAST AMERICAN IS ELIMINATED

Frederick J. Wright of Boston Lost to Bernard Darvin By One Stroke—Wright's Spontaneous Greatly Admired By British.

Hoyle, Eng., May 26.—The British amateur golf champion is to remain at home for at least another year.

British players having disposed of the last man of the strong American contingent who came across the seas in an endeavor to take back the title to the United States, an Englishman will retain the emblem and the prestige it carries.

Either Allan Graham of the Royal Liverpool Club, over the heads of which the contest is being played, or W. I. Hunter of Walmer and Kingsdown will be the new champion having successfully fought their way thru the semi-final round this afternoon.

Frederick J. Wright of Boston, the last surviving member of the American team lost in this morning's play to Bernard Darvin of Woking. This match, one of the most brilliant of the series went to the 19th hole, where the Englishman won by a stroke.

By the defeat of Wright, Darvin worked his way into the semi-finals only to be defeated by Hunter, 3 to 2 to play.

Graham's right to compete in the final came thru his vanquishing of H. S. B. Tubbs, Sunnydale, by one hole.

Wright's style of play, his sportsmanship and his clean cut appearance were greatly admired by the English spectators. The most common adverse criticism of Wright's style by the golfers in the gallery was on his habit of pulling his shots. This fault was particularly injurious to the American player in today's wind.

Precise and careful in every stroke, Wright succeeded on taking the lead against Darvin and maintaining it to the sixteenth green, where the match was squared. The Englishman then took the seventeenth but lost the eighteenth necessitating an extra hole. This Darvin took and won the match.

A few of the American golfers took part in pleasure matches with H. S. B. Tubbs, Sunnydale. His play was the sensation of the day.

Membership Drive Shows Results
Well Past 400 Mark—More Active Work Promised For Today.

The membership yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce drive went over 400, with sixty additional new members, the total at yesterday's report was 413. The workers and executive committee naturally with this fine showing feel confident that the goal of 500 will be reached today.

The Majors and Captains left the luncheon with the determination to make every effort to have their workers out in full force. Today will be what is called "open territory." Each team worker will be provided with a list of all the members that have joined up to date. In addition to this a select list of approximately 200 prospects will be given out. With the teams working in open territory anywhere in the city, it is expected the goal of 500 will be attained.

Mr. J. S. Hackett acting chairman told the workers present yesterday that they had good reason to feel encouraged over the membership thus far attained, and he urged all to make an extra effort to put the goal over.

The team workers listened to a very fine address by Dr. Joseph R. Harker, president of Illinois Woman's College. Dr. Harker was emphatic in saying that he thought this was the opportune time to put over this forward movement. The speaker emphasized two very important essentials, namely: That the citizens should have faith and believe in each other and by all means they should cooperate and work together. Dr. Harker told the men that they should not be content in getting just the 500 but that they should strive to get more.

This is the list of progressive citizens who, yesterday, joined Jacksonville's Civic-Commercial organization:

BELLES LETTRES SOCIETY IS SEVENTY YEARS OLD

Society of I. W. C. Will Celebrate 70th Anniversary in June.

The same year that gold was discovered in California, 1849, was the year that, here at the Illinois Woman's college, the Belles Lettres society was founded. Three girls got together and formed this society, now one of the oldest woman's literary organizations in the middle west. Seventy years have passed since then but one of the founders, Mrs. Alice McElroy Griffith, is still living and resides at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Pitner, in Jacksonville.

The members of the society are planning to hold a big reunion and anniversary celebration in June. Invitations have been sent out to the girls and women numbering nearly eight hundred, who are wearers of the Belles Lettres shield. They are now living in all parts of the United States and many of them abroad.

It is expected that a great many will return to the college this year to take part in the celebration and to attend the big banquet which is to be held June 7th.

The program for the banquet has been announced. Mrs. Katherine De Motte Gates, a former student at I. W. C. and a member of Belles Lettres, and who has been a most intimate friend of the Belles Lettres girls for many years, has been asked to be the toastmaster. The following is the program as announced yesterday:

Song, Bells of Youth, by Speaks—Le Nore Kreige, '24.

AUTOMOBILE AND WAGON COLLIDE

Car Owned and Driven by George Souza is Damaged—Wagon was Driven by John Atterberry.

A Ford automobile owned and driven by George Souza was damaged in a collision with a gravel wagon driven by John Atterberry at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

The accident occurred at the intersection of East Lafayette and Ashland avenues. Souza was driving east on Lafayette avenue and Atterberry was driving north in Ashland avenue.

According to the story told by Souza, just as he was passing the wagon, the driver pulled the team to one side causing the wagon tongue to swing around. The tongue caught the front seat of the car and the upholstering was torn and the braces of the top broken before Souza could stop the car. The Ford was considerably damaged but fortunately Souza escaped injury.

Social Service Notes

During the past month and a half, the Motor Corps has made it possible for the Social Service League to give more efficient service and to accomplish more than could otherwise have been done. Several county trips have been made as well as a number of trips in the city. The enrollment of the Motor Corps is as yet very small. It is hoped during the summer months more people will avail themselves of the opportunity to render this service to the league and to the community. Those who have already signed for active service, either regular or emergency are Mrs. Thomas Hopper, Margaret Fay Hopper, Mrs. Wm. Barr Brown, Mrs. John Gunn, Samuel Osborne, Mrs. H. P. Samuel, W. E. Spoons, Mrs. Charles Fawcett, Mrs. Chas. Minter, Miss Eleanor Moore.

Present day social conditions whether in the large city or in the smaller communities offer a challenge which must be met by the Social Worker. The question is not how many of the families and individuals which the Social Service League comes in contact with have been given temporary relief or financial aid but what services have been rendered each of them in the league's effort to build up health, self reliance, independence and family solidarity.

Some times the sole cause of a family's inability to care for itself is due to the ill health of one or more members of the family. The task of the league is then to secure the needed medical treatment. This may mean that arrangements must be made for hospital or sanatorium care, for treatment by a private physician or dentist, or the services of a specialist secured.

Temporary employment may be needed to bridge over a period of unemployment. Permanent employment on a better paying position may solve this problem.

Legal aid is needed in many cases. Non support action, search for a deserting husband and father, support order obtained from the court and juvenile court action are some of the services secured by the Social Service League for its clients.

The placing of both adults and children in service that is given from time to time. Permanent care in institutions for those needing institutional care, children placed in temporary or permanent boarding homes or adopted in permanent homes are only a few of the ways in which the Social Service League should be able to serve the community.

It is the aim of the League to secure the general improvement of conditions in the families which it serves. Some of the ways in which this can be done is thru strengthening church connections and connections with relatives, correcting sanitary or housing evils, transportation to other localities, or removal to better homes in the community.

To render the above services requires much time and careful detailed work by workers trained to study and solve these problems. It is not as yet possible to give intensive service in all situations referred to the League but it is toward this ideal that the league is constantly working and hopes in the near future to have the office equipment and the number of workers needed to carry on such work.

FARMERS ARE HOLDING LOTS OF CORN CROP

Estimated That 48 Per Cent of the 1920 Crop is Still Held By Farmers—Also Hold Some of Oats and Wheat Crop.

Springfield, Ill.—Farmers in Illinois are withholding from market 48 per cent of the corn they produced in 1920, according to figures just announced here by S. D. Fessenden, agricultural statistician for the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates. The state's production last year according to his figures was 294,150,000 bushels, of which the farmers on March 1, still held 141,201,000 bushels.

Forty-six per cent of the 1920 crop of oats is also being withheld by Illinois farmers, Mr. Fessenden shows, and also 22 per cent of the wheat production and 28 per cent of the barley. Oats still held on the farms March 1, amounted to 74,497,900 bushels, out of the total yield of 1,150,000 bushels.

Wheat withheld totalled 8,947,000 bushels out of the total 1920 yield of 40,670,000, and the barley still held on farms totalled 1,702,000 bushels out of the entire state yield of 6,080,000 bushels.

Mr. Fessenden does not explain why the crop reserve is so large this year, but says that it was likely due to the fact that farmers raised such large crops, and then were so sorely disappointed by the drop in market prices, that they have held on to their supply with the hopes prices may again pick up.

McLean county has 58 per cent of its corn crop still in the bins and this amount totals 7,428,111 bushels. Champaign county with 56 per cent still on farms runs up a total of 5,410,215, while Livingston's has 68 per cent for 5,239,325 bushels still in the bins.
